Made by D.S.I. Loh Wei Kong Forwarded by D. S. I. Logan.

The Shanghai Municipality Books and Stationery Dealers' Association (上海市書籍文具販賣業同業公會), was formerly situated in the premises of the Young Men's Lecturing Group Society, Small West Gate, Nantao. It came into existence in March, 1935 and was registered with the defunct local Tanpu (Registration Certificate No. 413).

Following the outbreak of the local Sino-Japanese hostilities, the association ceased functioning until July, 1940, when a communication office was established in the Bong Lai (蓬萊) Books and Stationery Shop, 620 Weihaiwei Road. It claims to have seventy-six members, all being proprietors of local books and stationery shops. Of this number, about 50 shops are situated in the Settlement while the remainder are in the French Concession. The members are required to pay a monthly fee ranging from $1.00 to $3.00 to the association in accordance with the extent of business done. The object is to promote mutual friendship and protect the common interests of members against irregularities. This association is now in charge of an executive committee of nine persons:

Subject Shanghai Municipality Food Contractors' Guild - attacked by members of defunct union.

Made by D. I. Kao Yen Ken Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

The attached letter was received through the post at Headquarters on Sept. 30th., 1940, from the Shanghai Municipality Food Contractors' Guild and contains the following information :

"At 7 p.m. Sept. 28, some ten Chinese of the loafertype visited the Shanghai Municipality Food Contractors' Guild, Lane 155, 40 Kaifeng Road, and destroyed the desks and chairs of the guild with axes. On departing those people intimated that the committee members of the guild should be careful in regard to the function of the "union". Enquiries made from the guild staff, ascertained that the assailants are members of the defunct Restaurant Employees' Union, which was formerly located at 9 Teh Yu Li, Yunnan Road, but following suppression by the Municipal Police, removed to 35 Tsih Zuan Ka, Nantao. Because of lack of support from the local restaurant workers, the union suspended activities in May, 1940, but the union promoters recently planned to resuscitate the activities of the union.

The Shanghai Municipality Food Contractors' Guild is registered with the S.M.P., Certificate No. C.-138.

TRANSLATION

September 30, 1940.

To Special Branch,
Shanghai Municipal Police.

At about 7 p.m., September 28, more than ten desperadoes, armed with weapons, entered the offices of this guild and, without any explanation, they damaged articles of furniture by chopping. When leaving they declared, "Directors and members of the Executive Committee be careful and see what our Union can do".

It is evident that these desperadoes are the remnants of the former labour union. Their illegal activities as the above mentioned cannot be tolerated. Therefore, we make this report and request you to look into the matter and also give us protection.

With reference to the attached application of the Shanghai Municipality Food Contractors' Guild (上海市飲食業公所), Lane 155, 40 Kaifeng Road, for registration, enquiries show that it is an old organization formed in 1876. It was registered by the now defunct local Tangpu on April 30, 1937, being in possession of a certificate No. Tseh 638. These enterprises include the giving away of free coffins and medical services and arrangements are being made to establish a free school for the education of children of caterers and their employees.

This guild does not provide club facilities. The premises are of the old temple style. The main hall ~~consists of~~ contains 3 Buddhas, while rooms in the wings are used as an office, a class room and a lodging place for the homeless members of the trade following the outbreak of local hostilities.

The maintenance of the guild is defrayed from monthly contributions from local Soochow style restaurants and rentals of land property of the guild in its neighbourhood.

This guild is now in charge of a committee of 15 owners of local Soochow style restaurants.
